

Sonali Bhagwati is the Co-founder of Spazio Design, an internationally recognized Design firm. She is the President of DPA after the merger of Spazio with DPA.

Sonali graduated from CEPT, Ahmadabad in 1986 and received a scholarship from L'Institute Francaise D'Architecture to work in Paris.

She has received numerous awards like 11th IID MK Awards in 2006, Architect of the Year Award in 2008 by Zee Business, Architect of the Year Award in 2012 by India Home Awards, Design Excellence Award in 2015, Leadership Award in 2015 by CE Worldwide, WADe India Awards 2016, Magpie Estate Award 2017.

She has been published as one of the 20 best Architects of India in the book 'Reflections', one of the prominent Women Architects by 'Hecar Foundation'. She has been featured as Hot 100 Contemporary Indian Architect in Architect & Interiors India magazine. Beside this, her work has been published regularly in several books & magazines.

She regularly speaks at various public forums on city level issues.

She has been a member of Delhi Urban Arts Commission, one of the most prestigious organizations in the Country for 2 terms. On behalf of DUAC she has been closely associated in the restructuring of building bye-laws for Delhi.

She is involved in the SUO MOTU city projects taken up by DUAC.

She has been a Member of Delhi Conservation Society and conducted heritage walks in Kashmere Gate area.